BLACK-OWNED RESTAURANTS

Black-owned restaurants are an essential part of Tallahassee cuisine and culture. Whether you're craving Southern-style cooking, fresh seafood or something sweet, Tallahassee has a wide selection of restaurants to satisfy your appetite.

For over 30 years, Earley's Kitchen has been dishing up good ol' Southern country cooking for breakfast and lunch while Rattlers and Southern food lovers alike, including then-Vice President Joe Biden, visit Olean's Café for some of the best soul food in the South.

Other Black-Owned Dining: Leola's Crab Shack, Gurlie's Lemonade and Sweets, Mo-Betta BBQ, Pineappétit

FARM TO TABLE

Backwoods Crossing takes farm-to-table to the next level by sourcing local fruits, veggies, meats, seafood and wine from local producers and growing their own! What began as a few raised beds in the front lawn to supply the restaurant with fresh herbs has morphed into a full-fledged 3½ acre farmette supplying fresh produce all year-round. After THE Meeting Entertainment

Whether you're here for a meeting, conference, reunion or sporting event, Tallahassee always adds another level of entertainment to your visit. Combine equal parts arcade games, go-karts and bowling with delicious food and craft cocktails, and you get a full slate of fun your entire group can enjoy!

FUN STATION

Fun is the name of the game at Fun Station! What started off as a mini-golf course has expanded to include a massive collection of video games, virtual rides, laser tag, go-karts and batting cages. This large venue can easily accommodate groups of 15 or more with ample parking for buses.

HANGAR 38

Can't make up your mind what you like more, arcade games, pinball or bowling? Then head out to Hangar 38 at Bannerman Crossings and enjoy all three under the same roof, along with some great grub from the in-house menu at Zeppelins. Multiple private event rooms can accommodate small or large groups – or you can lease out the entire center for a private event your group will never forget.

DISTRICT 850

Want to add in some axe throwing, escape rooms or indoor ropes courses? Then head to District 850, the perfect combination of adventure and downtime for holding team-bonding activities. Whether you're looking for more casual team bonding through striking up a bowling match or battling it out in laser tag or want to host formal events like holiday parties in our Hyper Lounge cabanas, District 850 will customize an entertainment package just for you.
